FANNIE'S FLIRTATIONS

AND THE MESS THEY GOT HER INTO.

Engaging Herself to Two Swains and Appointing the Same Wedding Day For Both-Superfluity of Bridegrooms.

BALTIMORE, Dec. 11 .- Fannie Zimmerman, daughter of a contractor, has long been noted for her beauty. There were many suitors for her hand, and among them highly connected and estimable young men.

Miss Zimmerman accepted both, received rings from both, and was indiscreet enough to set the same day for both weddings. In the morning both lovers arrived in the city to claim their bride. The Pennsylvania man arrived at the house first. Just as they were leaving, up drove the Southerner. Taking in the situation, he stuck a handful of bills under his driver's nose and told him to earn them. Off like a flash started the team, and down the street after the fleeing lovers thundered the jilted one. As Hallen was passing the Western Police Station he stopped his carriage, ran in and told the magistrate that he was being pursued by a man who had threatened his life. A warrant was issued, and, just as he drove off, the police captured his pursuer's carriage and arrested its unlucky occupant, He was locked up, in spite of his protestation. While in his cell he acted like a crazy man. In the meantime the Pennsylvanian had triumphantly taken his bride to a clergyman wno tied the knot in short order. Feeling secure of his treasure he returned to the police station and appeared against his rival. When the met it was with diffi-culty that the police held back the defeated rival, so powerful were his exertions to free himself and get at his enemy. The charge of threatening to kill was withdrawn and the charge of threatening to assault was preferred against him Hammoud was then released on $300 bail. He was kept in the station until Hallen was able to get safely away. Much sympathy is felt for the young man, while Mr. Zimmerman is furious at the conduct of his daughter in

A DAY'S DOINGS AT THE CAPITAL An Important Measure Introduced By

Washington, D. C., Dec. 11.-A decision was rendered by the United States Supreme Court Monday in the contested will case of Stephen Percy Ellis et al., collateral heirs of Sarah Ann Dorsey, against Jefferson Davis, to recover possession of certain real and personal property left to the latter by Mrs. Dorsey at her death: The judgment of the Court below in favor of Mr. Davis is affirmed.

Mr. Frank Sperry, Private Secretary to Secretary Folger, says that the Secretary is not seriously ill and that he will be out in a few days.

Among the most important measures introduced in the House Monday was a joint resolution introduced by Representative Townshend, of Illinois, authorizing the President, during the recess of Congress, to prohibit the importation of any foreign merchandise into the United States which he, upon the advice of experts, may consider injurious to the public health. The resolution, Mr. Townshend says, is intended to place the President of the United States upon an equal footing with the administration of Foreign Governments, who have prohibited certain classes of American products from landing upon their shores.

The bill introduced by Representative King, of Louisana, to provide for the improvement of the Mississippi from Cairo to the mouth of the river, proposes an appropriation of $5,000,000 for the purpose, to be expended in accordance with the plans and recommendations of the Mississippi River Commission.

Representative Skinner, of New York, will introduce a bill for a special delivery stamp, not to exceed ten cents. The object is to secure prompt delivery of newspaper mail and matter of that class received after the last general delivery at night. He will also introduce bills extending the free delivery system to cities of over 2,000 inhabitto retire the trade dollar at its bullion value; to repeal the clause of the silvar dollar act making coinage of a fixed amount compulsory, and to authorize the Secretary of the Treasury to invest surplus revenue in four and four-and-a-half per cent bonds not yet matured. Also to fi the minimum weight of letters at one ounce and make postage on drop letters one cent.

RECENT TOPICS IN THE OLD WORLD.

The Status of the Soudan Trouble-Egypt

Fairly Launched In War. CAIRO, Dec. 11 .- The commander of the forces at Suakim on December first, sent out a force of 500 Soudaners and Blacks with twenty horsemen and 200 Bazark cavalrymen. Mahmoud Taher remained to defend the town. They met a number of the enemy at Tamanieh where a battle was fought with a result disastrous to the Egyptian forces. The Bashi-Bazouks acted in a most cowardly manner, and a rout followed. Two officers, fifteen horsemen and ten of the Soudaners and Blacks had at the date of the dispatch reached Suakim. They report that the enemy, as well as themselves, lost heavily, and it is believed that Osman, the close friend of El Mahdi, who was in command of the opposing forces, was killed. Strong fears are entertained that the garrisons at Toko and at Singat have either been starved to death or have been brutally massacred. The latest official announcement is that 500 men from the force of Baker Pasha have arrived at Suakim, where reinforcements have been anxiously awaited. LONDON, Dec. 11.-The recent disasters in the Soudan have led to a change in the commandant. Mahmoud Taber has been suspended by Baker Pasha, who hopes to get his troops into Suakim before they have been overwhelmed, or before the section of El Mahdi's force which has persistently attacked the place for a fortnight can effect its capture. The officer who commanded the 500 men of Baker Pasha's command and who followed the small party of soldiers which escaped from slaughter at the battle of Tamanich December 2, into Suakim, bore with him the order recalling Mahmoud Pasha as soon as the change could be arranged without danger. Meanwhile Mahmoud retains the command under instructions to remain inactive until the arrival of Baker Pasha and to cooperate with him. It is believed the change has been made in accordance with General Baker's # strong opposition to making Suakim the center of operations in the Soudan, as has been intended by the Turkish General.

Dublin, Dec. 11.—In the Smyth murder trial McKeon, of the fourteen persons origi-nally indicted for conspiracy to murder, but who subsequently informed and was granted immunity, testified that the Dublin Invincibles had founded a society whose object was murder. The headquarters of this society was at Westmeath. A list of victims was compiled and certain members assigned to the work of putting out of the way such persons as were from time to time condemned by the society. McKeon's were two who seemed to meet with equal testimony implicates Elliott and others in favor. One was Frank J. Hallen, of Uniontown, Penn., and the other Henry R. Hammond, of Petersburg Va.. Both are most important points he stoutly adhered. McKeon was still in the witness stand when the case adjourned and his examination will be resumed. LONDON, Dec. 10.-The Evening News gives credence to the report that Mr. Parnell will decline to accept the testimonial contributed to him personally. It is, however, understood that he will suggest some disposition of the fund which will, in his opinion, best serve Irish interests, and, at the same time, give personal aid to the impoverished classes for emigration or other

DUBLIN, Dec. 10.-Alexander O'Gorman. brother of Major O'Gorman, was convicted of having assaulted a constable. # GRANT SUED.

His War Horse Prances Over a Peaceable Milkman.

NEW YORK, Dec. 11 .- U. S. Grant, Jr. will to-morrow be made the defendant in a uit for $10,000 damages, instituted by John Bailey, a milkman of Westchester County, on account of the alleged remarkable behavior of one of the Arabian stallions which the Khedive gave to General Grant. This stallion has been kept on the defendant's farm at North Salem. Mr. Bailey's complaint recites that Grant's hostler drove the stallion to the Salen postoffice tied the bridle to a post and went for letters. The stallion became unruly, and freeing himself, reared just as Mr. Bailey was passing with a milk wagon, and planted his hoof on Bailey's chest, knocking him out of the wagon. The stallion hen upset the wagon, spilling $28 worth of milk, and then attacked Bailey's horse. The horse fled in affright, and the complaint alleges that the stallion returned to Mr. Bailey and stamped upon his back and chest until he was caught and pulled away. Mr. Bailey alleges that he was laid up in bed for three months, and may never reover. It was reported that Grant had offered Bailey $300 in payment for all damages, but this had been refused.

The Tobacco Tax.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 11.-There are indiations that the tobacco people intend to ask for the removal of the entire tax on tobacco this session. One of the most successful of last sessions tobacco lobbyists is here to day looking over the field, and says he thinks the effort will probably be made, although he has not yet made a canvass of the House to see whether it can be carried.

If it can be carried by the Republicans and high tariff Democrats, the tobacco trade will probably ask a removal; if there s doubt about the success of the effort, they will probably ask nothing.

A Bank Closes Out.

NEW YORK, Dec. 11.-Reports received ere state that the Manufacturer's Bank, of Amsterdam, N. Y., has closed its doors. It is said the depositors will be paid in full, and that the share-holders will lose little, if anything. THE TRUE INWARENESS REVEALED How Reverend Tyng Became Agent of Stock-Gambling Woman-Statements From an Alleged Mutual Friend.

NEW YORK, Dec. 11.—An intimate friend of Rev. John O. Bache told a reporter all the circumstances connecting Bache with the correspondence between Rev. Stephen H. Tyng, Jr., and the lady mentioned in Sunday's World. He also stated the contents of the letters on which so high a price has been put by the blackmallers, who still have posses-sion of them. "These letters," said he, "while not compromising either of the parties so far as their personal reputation is concerned, reflect on Tyng in his relations as a clergyman preaching against the worship of mammon, and on the lady as being a victim of a mania for speculating in Wall street. In a word, they are of a financial nature. The lady in question was an ardent speculator in stocks and bonds, and Tyng was the person through whom she indulged in her passion for stock gambling. Her letters to him contained instructions how to invest her money, and inclosed checks drawn to his order. The answers informed her of the success or failure of her ventures, and contained checks for her winnings, when she made any."

"Do you know how they were stolen?" "The whole package was stolen by male servant."

"What induced the lady to choose Tyng her agent?" "Her extreme friendship for him and for

Milwaukee Incendiary Fires Caused by a

Gang of Boys. MILWAUKEE, Dec. 11 .- There is great exeitement over the arrest of Bennie West, a son of Governor F. A. West, a prominent Board of Trade member, Ernest Finch, son of an officer of the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul Road, Charles Millard, son of a leading grocer, and Jos. Moffett, son of the proprietor of a large marble yard, all charged with starting the recent fires in different sections of the city. All are under fifteen years of age. They had devoured the contents of dime novels, and ormed a league which met in the Public brary, had Chief Knights and Subnights, and wrote and mailed threatening etters, and had planned a regular cowboy campaign for the present winter. They confess having started all the recent fires to see the fun. One of the places fired beonged to Moffett's father.

A SLIPPERY CUSTOMER.

Devious Devices of Mr. Henry Myers. PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Dec. 11.—The prolonged absence of Mr. Henry Myers, who for two years has held the position of clerk in the U. S. Naval rendezvous, provokes onfirmed the nomination of Walter Q. much adverse criticism. In 1881 he fell in love with Lena Harris, a belle in Hebrew circles. Shortly after their marriage he ran in debt for board, pawned his household furniture, and removed to a cheap hotel. On November 26, on a plea of go ing to Washington on official business, he left his wife at her parents' residence, and he has not since been seen. It now transpires that he is heavily in debt. It is alleged that an overfondness for the gaming table wrought his ruin. Detectives who are seeking his present whereabouts report that he has another wife in Baltimore, and that he has sailed for London, where he hails from, his real name being Blank-

Distinguished Horse Thief. PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 11.-Helen Anderon, who is charged in connection with Nellie Watson with the larceny of a horse and carriage, valued at $385, the property of John Frye, was brought up from prison and given a seat in front of the dock in the Court House. Helen is a stranger in this city. She says her right name is Crawford, and her father is a Judge of the Supreme Court of Maine and lives at Portland. She has a brother who is a Member of Congress. A lawyer in this city who became interested in her case received a letter from Renel Small, official stenographer of the Supreme Judicial Court of Maine, dated at Portland, which confirms the fact that her right name is Lee Crawford, Councilmen Walters and Graham have interested themselves in behalf of Miss Anderson. It is claimed that bad company had led her astray. The Judge postponed the triai in order to ascertain whether the girl's story is true or not.

THE EMMA BOND CASE. Miss Bond Expected to Give Her Testimony in Full, HILLSBORO, III., Dec. 11.—The case of the people vs. John Montgomery et al on a charge of rape, was read from the criminal docket Monday morning, and counsel for the prosecution immediately made a motion to postpone the trial until to-day, owing to the absence of Judge Thornton. Bond's mental and physical condition is much improved, and she will be able to give her testimony in full. A week ago an attempt was made by unknown parties to force an entrance into Miss Bond's room at one o'clock at night for the purpose of abduction, but the would-be abductors were frightened away by her screams. The window blinds were broken and tracks were discovered on the ground outside

NEW YORK, Dec. 11.—Detective Pryor of the Fifth Avenue Hotel, says that Charles A. About PITTSBURG, Dec. 11.—Pittsburg, 5 feet 6 two years ago Matthews, who had a strong strong passion for play, won $125,000 at Monte Carlo, and he was followed across the ocean by card sharps, who got $60,000 of the money on the steamer. On a subsequent trip to Europe he lost $15,000, and kept on playing until he found himself almost ruined. "I'll go to Philadelphia," he said to the detective, "to make or brake. I can get a tolerably fair game there." It only took him four days to lose all he had, and he ended his bad luck by putting a bullet in his brain.

CONKLING'S GRAY HAIRS.

He Speaks In Court of His "Troubles

Naw York, Dec. 11.-The reference case of Feter Marie and others against C. K. Garrison, involving 30,000 shares of Missouri and Pacific Railroad stock, was continued here to-day. After the recess Roscoe Conkling, who appeared for the plaintiffs, asked Mr. Clinton, who appeared for the defendant, for permission to have entered on the record the latter's willingness to allow a certain opinion to go on the official record. In giving his consent Mr. Clinton remarked that if that was all that Mr. Conkling had had to trouble him his hairs would not be so gray. "Pardon me, Brother Clinton," replied Mr. Conkling, "but I have undergone more troubles, great and small, than have ever entered into your experience. Why you seem to forget a letter that even you wrote a few years ago, and had published in the World, wherein you said that you would put me in jail, after the election." Mr. Clinton denied having written such a letter.

A Ghastly Cargo.

TORONTO, Ont., Dec. 11.—The inhabitants of Pelee Island were much horrified yesterday to find that a small sail boat had drifted with the waves to the shore, containing a ghastly cargo of seven decomposed bodies. This explains the mystery of the disappearance of Captain Turck, several sons and a young man named Crane, all highly respected, who left two weeks ago to-day to sail to the opposite side of the island The big storm which swept the lakes two weeks ago rose shortly afterward and blew hem out of sight. As the boat did not capsize, it is thought that they either pershed from hunger or were drowned by waves breaking over the boat.

The prisoner was released finally, and disappeared to the North on a gallop.

The Dublin Murder Trials.

DUBLIN, Dec. 11 .- The trial of Robert Elliott, Swords, Magrath, and Lastrange, on the charge of conspiracy to murder William Smyth, of Barbavilla, was resumed Tuesday. # Prize Fight in England.

New York, Dec. 11.—Private sporting advices from England announce that last week Wm. Goode defeated Diel Roberts in a hard fought hard glove contest of twentyone rounds. A previous meeting was broken up by the police some time before at the end of the ninth round, and, the men being quite evenly matched were very much in earnest. Roberts had an apparent advantage at first, but at the end of the twentieth round was so badly used up that in the last round Goode did nothing but push him. The fight lasted one hour and twenty-three minutes.

THE Supreme Court of Iowa has decided that when the ordinance of a the girl. town provides that licenses to sell liquor may be issued by the proper authorities, the repeal of such ordinances operates it. The license to sell liquor, says the Court, is not a contract between the State and the person licensed, clothing such persons with vested rights which it apartments, and Miss Hubbard, who also called herself "Allie McDonald," to would be unconstitutional afterward to cumstances, would be a public offence; and such permission may be withdrawn at the pleasure of the authorities originally granting it.

EARLY in 1884 an effort is to be made in Chicago to establish a training school of high character. It will discard foreign and ancient languages, but will give particulary careful instruction in mechanical drawing and in the practical use of tools. In other words it will combine the scientific instruction of the school with the experience and aptness that are usually acquired only in the shop. Though, as we understand the matter, no one trade is thoroughly taught, a foundation is laid for the comparatively easy mastery of more than one trade; and united with this eminently utilitarian plan is an extreme care for the moral purity and workmanlike zeal of pupils. The enterprise seems to be admirable.

IN THE DEPTHS,

Or a Ruse to Get Rid of a Lover—Owner of the Cloak and Hat Found at the River identified.

Cincinnati Post.

The finding of a lady's hat and cloak on the river bank at the foot of Smith street., last Friday morning, it has been discovered, belonged to a woman whose maiden name was Miss Mollie Hubbard, originally from Washington, Mason county, Ky., where her father now lives, a prosperous farmer. It will be remem-bered that a note found in the jacket of the cloak was dated November 23, and signed J. E. McDonald. On Saturday last the Post printed a dispatch from Maysville, stating that J. E. McDonald had been found at that place, and that the evidence pointed to him as the person referred to in the note. Our investigation shows that he was a lover of the girl. He is also from the interior of Kentucky, but for the past three months has resided in the vicinity of Ripley, O., and Maysville, Ky., the former of which places Miss Hubbard had been staying since the 21st of last September, and up until a little more than a week ago. Last September Miss Hubbard, accompanied by a gentleman, arrived in Ripley and stopped at the Latona House, the gentleman stating that he was engaged to the lady, and that they would shortly get married. He stated that they were from Maysville, Ky. His excuse for bringing the girl here was that she desired to escape the attentions of another lover. The gentleman returned to Maysville in a few days, but came occasionally to see

Meantime, the young man, J. E. Mc-Donald, who was the obnoxious lover, arrived upon the scene, and secured employment in the neighborhood. He frealso to revoke the licenses granted under | quently called upon Miss Hubbard, who represented him to the hotel people as her cousin. He seemed very devoted to her. During the absence of the Maysdivest them of, but it is merely a permission to do that which, under the cirman, however, became derelict in his attentions, and she went to Maysville to ascertain the cause. Upon her return from the place she received a note from McDonald, which, it now appears, was the same that was found in the pocket of the cloak picked up on the bank of the river. It was dated November 23, and chided her for not loving him as he thought she should. It also inquired whether she saw —— Hancock while in Maysville, and if she did, what he said to her about him.

Later on Miss Hubbard became despondent. She told her landlady that she had had a quarrel with her Maysville friend, and there was no prospect of a reconciliation.

Miss Hubbard confessed that she had once been married, but claimed that she had been divorced and had her maiden name restored to her. She seemed to have been rather wayward, and drifted about in different parts of the country.

On the 28th of November she left Ripley, starting for Maysville, carrying a few clothes wrapped up in a newspaper. Since then she has not been seen. The belief prevails in Ripley that J. E. Mc-Donald is or was something more to Miss Hubbard than a lover. When he read the account printed in last Friday's Post he was very much agitated, and, hiring a horse, was absent from town all day. He returned in the eyening, and was still in a high state of agitation. To show that the girl was friendly to him he produced the following letter:

In this she calls herself "Allie." Was she McDonald's divorced wife? All at events she seemed to keep on good terms with him, and use him at her convenience, but was anxious to marry Hancock, failing in which, and filled with despondency, she came to Cincinnati, and left evidence here of what would seem to be suicide. But the fact that her body has not been found seems strange. It is possible that the hat, cloak and letter are a ruse to get rid of Mc-Donald and to bring Hancock to his senses. The belief prevails in Ripley that the girl came to Cincinnati and met S. J. DAUGHERTY, with foul play.

Where Was Her Husband?

CHICAGO, Ill., Dec 11.—Mrs. Tom Sennatt, wife of the Probate Clerk, while walking with her husband and sister Saturday evening down South Halstead street, was the victim of a daring and successful highway robbery. The case was suppressed by the police, who say they have a clue to the perpetrators.

AYER'S Cherry Pectoral.

No other complaints are so insidious in their at-tack as those affecting the throat and lungs : none so trifled with by the majority of sufferers. The ordinary cough or cold, resulting perhaps from a trifling or unconscious exposure, is often but the beginning of a fatal sickness. AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL has well proven its efficacy in a forty years' fight with throat and lung diseases, and should be taken in all cases without delay.

A Terrible Cough Cured. "In 1857 I took a severe cold, which affected my lungs. I had a terrible cough, and passed night after night without sleep. The doctors gave me up. I tried AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL, which relieved my lungs, induced sleep, and afforded me the rest necessary for the recovery of my strength. By the continued use of the PECTORAL a permanent cure was effected. I am now 62 years old, hale and hearty, and am satisfied your CHERRY PECTORAL saved me. HORACE FAIRBROTHER."

This was tried in small and frequent doses, and to our delight in less than half an hour the little patient was breathing easily. The doctor said that the Cherry Pectoral had saved my darling's life. Can you wonder at our gratitude? Sincerely yours,

MRS. JOHANNA LIPP, who celebrated her one hundredth birthday yesterday, was visited by about three hundred and fifty persons from this city and Cincinnati. WE have accidentally omitted mentioning the death of a distinguished per sonage of this community-"Old Jim," the horse used by Major Chenoweth in his campaigns during the war. He died on Thanksgiving day, at the ripe old age of twenty-nine years. He was an animal of fine points, remarkably inteiligent, was noted as a jumper, and on one occasion saved his owner's life, when hard pressed by the enemy, by going over a his part of the case of high fence that was an obstacle to the retreat. "Old Jim" took part in the Confederate parade last June, and was him during the war. He was a faithful animal, never flinched at the crack of a rifle or the bursting of a shell, and came up to roll-call on any and all occasions. Peace to the ashes of faithful "Old Jim."

Pleasant Incident.

At the close of Professor Leary's class in book-keeping, last night, J. W. Cartmel arose and presented him an elegant silk hat, the gift of his class. Mr. Cartmel, in his presentation speech, eulogised the professor in the most flattering terms, alluding to him as a benafactor to the young men of Kentucky, asking him to accept the present as a testimonial of their friendship for him as a thorough gentleman, an eminent mathematician, an accomplished book-keeper and an unrivaled teacher.

The professor, on receiving the hat said:

Mr. Cartmel and Gentlemen: On receiving this spi ndid present from your bands, I am overwhelmed with gratifude and find language inadequate to express my feelings. The act, more forcibly than words, speak your appreciation of my efforts, and approval of my methods in imparting a useful knowledge. Should fate decree your pursuit in life commercial may you never halt in the unering law of perfect balance; and, no mafter to what calling destiny assigns you, may the principles of commercial integrity, which I have so carefully instilled into your minds, bring forth that reward of happiness you so richly deserve. When, at last, your days of usefulness are passed, and you are called beyond this mundane sphere, may the credit balance of your loss and gain account be so large that a bounteous surplus fund of eternal glory will be declared in your behalf. The professor, on receiving the hat said:

The professor spoke one-half hour in the foregoing strain, much to the enjoyment of his class. He is endeared in the hearts of his pupils here and elsewhere. We doubt if any man of his calling has so many warm-hearted friends. He will leave Maysville soon for a new field of labor, at Portsmouth, O., and will be followed by the heartfelt wishes of his nu- supported me in the contest. merous friends in Maysville.

STONE LICK.

Elder Keys preached at Stone Lick Sunday. We have a new kind of religion. It gives the people the "swells."

There were a good many people from Mays-lick at church at Mt. Gllead Sunday. Mr. Tom Brown bought a tract of land the other day, consideration $1,500. Mr. Brown we welcome you—wish you had bought the whole tract.

A couple of young gentlemen who were boasting of their mathematical attainments were given this sum: "It a horse can eat a peck of bran in five minutes, how long will it take it to travel to Maysville."

If the lady who was feeding her chickens so early the other morning had have looked on the pike she would not have grumbled so loud when the pig stole her ear of corn—a young gentleman was hearing her.

It is a very great mistake to suppose the religion of our Saviour is disgraced by the misdeeds of those who professed to be its friend. The "disgrace" was, if it all, by their coming in, their going out was a relief.

Mr. Basil Calvert contemplates moving to Kansas in the spring. Our best wishes go with him. He is a good Democrat and we hope his vote will be there as it has been here—always on the side of a free white man. An old sore-legged tramp came to Mr. Farrow's house and begged to te taken in for bis board. He stayed five months and became such a burden that Mr. Farrow was releved when he left, and now he has sued him for wages. Such cases should not, it seems to us, bear an action. For humanity's sake they are taken in and treated like human beings, and like the viper that was warmed into life turns and stings.

It is rumored that Lord Rossmore or Mr. Monroe will oppose Mr. Walker, the Conservative nominee for Parliament for Londonderry, and who is also supported by the Liberal party. It is possible that a Par-nellite candidate will also be up.

THE Londonderry Bench of Magistrates has decided to prohibit the proposed Orange and Land League meetings and processions on December 18th. The Liberals have adopted Mr. Walker, the Conservative candidate, to contest the vacancy for Londonderry, and will appoint him at the

Caucus of Republican Senators,

WASHINGTON, Dec. 11.-As heretofore announced, a Caucus of Republican Senators will be held Thursday morning, and the completion of the reorganization of the Senate will be discussed. There seems to be a general impression that the Secretary, Sergeant-at-Arms and other officers will be chosen this week. Members of the joint committee appointed by the House and Senate to adjust the salaries of employes, have expressed the opinion that a report will be made before the holiday adjournment. The result will be that the salarics of the House employes will be made equal to those of the Senate. There will be no material changes in the number of employes in any branch of Congress. The nate Committees on Finance and Foreign Relations organized Tuesday, and almost ail clerks of the Senate Committees have been appointed. The entire list of Committees will be organized and ready for work before the end of the week.

Kendall's Spavin Cure.

SANTA ROSA, California, Feb. 9, 1883.

B. J. KENDALL & CO.,—Gents:—I teel it a duty to others suffering with the piles and failing of the rectum to write to you. I have had the piles and prolapsups of the rectum for five years, for the past three years I have suffered the most agonizing pain. I tried everything without relief, but after ten day's use of Kendall's Spavin Cure, I have not seen or heard of the piles since. One who has not suffered as I have cannot comprehend the great joy that I felt at being cured of a disease almost worse than death. I had a valuable young horse that had a large bunch gather on his breast bone. I tried all kinds of liniments and had it eut open without any benefit. Saw your advertisement and bought a bottle of Kendall's Spavin Cure and ordered my teamster to use as directed. In less than one week the lump had dissappeared. Thinking that a liniment that would do what Kendull's Spavin Cure has done for my horse might benefit more. I tried it as a last resort. With gratitude and best wishes for your success, I am faithfully yours, J. H. GLENN.

Cured the sprain in very short order.

Yours respectfully,

THE MINISTER WHO FAILS to interest his congregation and build up his church is generally accused of being a poor preacher, or of not studying hard enough. That is not always where the trouble comes from. Dyspepsia and liver disorders are responsible for many a dull sermon and many a vacant pulpit. When the Dominie's digestive apparatus is working wrong and his nerves are giving him pain, and his brain refuses to do its duty, it is all nost impossible to make or to preach a good sermon. Give your suffering minister a bottle of Brown's Iron Bitters. You will see its effect on next Sunday's preaching. The Rev. Mr. Zehring, of Codoras, Pa., was paralyzed, and could not walk except with crutches, until Brown's Iron Bitters made a new man of him. The Rev. Mr. White, of Rock Hill, S. C., says: "It restored me to strength and vigor." Brown's Iron Bitters is not only for the minister, but for all people.
